HALLIBURTON ANNOUNCES FINAL RESULTS OF TENDER OFFER

HOUSTON, Texas – Halliburton (NYSE: HAL) today announced the final results of its modified Dutch auction tender offer, which expired at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on Thursday, August 22, 2013.

Halliburton has accepted for purchase 68,041,236 shares of its common stock at a purchase price of $48.50 per share, for an aggregate cost of $3.3 billion, excluding fees and expenses relating to the tender offer. These shares represent approximately 7.4% of the total number of shares of Halliburton common stock issued and outstanding as of August 26, 2013.

The tender offer was oversubscribed and, pursuant to the terms of the tender offer, shares were accepted on a pro rata basis, except for tenders of odd lots, which were accepted in full, and except for certain conditional tenders automatically regarded as withdrawn pursuant to the terms of the tender offer. Halliburton has been informed by the depository that the proration factor for the tender offer, after giving effect to the priority for odd lots, is approximately 69.466%. The depository will promptly pay for the shares accepted for purchase and will return all other shares tendered.

Dave Lesar, chairman, president and chief executive officer, commented, “Our confidence in our long-term financial outlook has enabled us to increase our shareholder distributions while maintaining robust liquidity to fund future growth. This tender offer has been well-received by the investment community and, combined with share repurchases earlier this year and our dividend target of at least 15-20% of net income, reflects our commitment to deliver value to shareholders.”

Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC served as lead dealer managers for the tender offer, and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated served as a co-dealer manager. Stockholders who have questions or
