2017

HALLIBURTON

Dear HALPAC Member:

We are pleased to share with you the 2017 Halliburton Political Action Committee (HALPAC) Annual Report. The report lists federal and state level candidates that HALPAC supported last year.

In 2017, HALPAC made $384,550 in contributions to 101 candidates and three federal leadership PACs, a more than 56% increase in giving from our last non-election year, 2015.

As we head into the 2018 midterm elections, HALPAC will continue to identify and support those elected officials who can bring positive changes to the legislative process. HALPAC will look to highlight the benefits of employee engagement in the political process and the value-add provided to HALPAC members through the PAC-Match program that supports hundreds of charitable organizations each year.

2018 promises many changes at the legislative level, with some of our biggest industry champions choosing not to run for re-election. This year we will be focused on continuing to help those candidates for political office who have demonstrated their unwavering support for our industry while also looking to forge relationships with promising candidates and incumbents taking on new leadership positions that have the ability to impact the operations of our business for years to come. The legislative and regulatory policies the next Congress addresses — be they related to tax reform implementation, trade, workforce issues, the environment or energy programs — all could have a long-ranging impact on our country, our company and our jobs.

Your support of HALPAC can help ensure that those elected are champions for our industry and are committed to common sense solutions that will foster a healthy economy and balanced energy policies. Thank you for your continued support and engagement!

Sincerely,

The HALPAC Board of Directors

“Membership in HALPAC is purely voluntary, and it is your exclusive right to decide whether to become a member and how much to contribute. You may decline to participate without any concern of reprisal, and your participation will not gain you any advantage within the Company.”

Multi-Candidate Status

Halliburton Company Political Action Committee is a Multi-Candidate, Non-Partisan Political Action Committee

HALPAC CONTRIBUTION POLICY

Halliburton Company Political Action Committee (HALPAC) was established as a means for Company employees, through voluntary contributions, to support candidates whose views on matters affecting the industry represent the best interests of our Company and its employees. HALPAC is a Multi-Candidate, Non-Partisan Political Action Committee.

A candidate's eligibility for support from HALPAC is reviewed by the HALPAC Board, which considers the candidate's record on business-related issues; leadership and committee assignments for which the candidate might be eligible; the extent of Halliburton Company's facilities and employees within the candidate's district and state; and finally, the candidate's chances of being elected. Suggestions of employees are invited.

This publication is produced at the expense of Halliburton Company and the material set forth herein constitutes a communication of the views of Halliburton Company and is not the reproduction in whole or in part of any broadcast, transcript, tape or other written, graphic or other form of campaign materials prepared by a candidate, a candidate's committee or a candidate's authorized agent.

HALPAC CHARITABLE MATCH

Halliburton Company values the contributions of its employees, not only to HALPAC but also to the communities where we live and work. To help our employees make the most of their contributions, Halliburton offers PAC-MATCH, a matching gift program. For every $100 or more that you contribute to HALPAC, Halliburton will match that amount, dollar for dollar, and donate it in your name to a nonprofit organization of your choice. Over the last several years, as the generosity of our employees has grown through HALPAC so has our charitable giving. Our charitable contributions extend to hundreds of organizations including churches, schools and research centers all aimed at improving the lives of those less fortunate.

The HALPAC Board encourages all HALPAC members to designate a charity and help us stretch your contribution further by matching it with a donation to the 501 (c)(3) charity of your choice. We truly appreciate the generosity of our members and thank you for your donation to HALPAC and look forward to continuing to grow and give back.
